Ashgrove February 28th 1797

I cannot resist the temptation - of enquiring after my Dear Aunt Nuan - who I was sorry to think I left - in so poor a state of health. but from a letter I had from B.
Bayard - was happy to find - you were completely recovered - I hope you are now as stout as ever. and that Peter continues - as fine a boy - as he was - when I left him - I often think of him - and hope soon to hear the great progress he is daily making - I long much to hear from you - except a few lines from Petsy B. - I have not heard the smallest account - about any of my friends with you - but trust will Have that satisfaction very soon - Hope you have - before this - received - the letter I wrote - from London - inclosed in Mrs R. Box - and that you already know. the change - of life - that has happened - Mrs B - begs you will accept. her kindest love - which she also sends to Peter - I'm sorry to say - she has been complaining a great deal - but trust in God - will soon be brought to her usual health -

What pleasure it would give us both - to be included in your society We constantly speak of you - and even imagine see you - I have little to mention. Have enjoyed perfect good health - since my arrival -

When you see my Uncle's family - please give my Love to them - I wrote Mr. L. - very lately. It will give me great satisfaction - to have the pleasure of hearing from you - Believe me to be My Dear Sir Yours very affectionately Geo. Vanbrough Brtning
